The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol; and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antiferment.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above, non-secret medicines largely, but the most intelligent people employ them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent, or secret medicines. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of an endorsement from leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. No other medicines put up for like purposes has any such professional endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." Easy to take as candy.

Letter From Munich.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Munich, Bavaria, Aug. 18, 1906.

Having written to the Gazette from Switzerland regarding the public-school work in the country districts there, your "foreign correspondent" now offers you a few lines bearing upon the kindergarten and school work in Germany. If the old-world systems have the advantage of us in some points, we surpass them in others, and a student of kindegatren work could not fail to note how far the American kindergarden has advanced, in comparison with the work in that line in Germany. Froebel, the founder of the kindergarten system, was a German, and the kindergarten must be regarded as a German institution; but, as is the case with many of our German-American citizens, it is born in Germany, and matured in America. This is frankly conceded by educators in this country, and the writer was told by the director of the Munich Seminary, for kindergarteners, that while this system of education has become a philosophy—a science—in America, the standard of the work here, puts it almost on a plane with day—nursery work—an altogher different thing. The fact that this gentleman occupied the position he did, proved his statement, for he was promoted from the public school primary work to the directorship of a kindergarten training school for teachers without any special qualification or preparation for the work. He was pleasant, reliable, and thoroughly experinced in elementary teaching; but that is far from kindergarten! Miss Fawcett and her assistants, in Alexandria, are conducting a kindergarten such as is not to be found in this great Germany metropolis. One of the writer's children attended for seven months the first private kindergarten in this city; it was conducted by a baroness—a person by no means dazzling to the "vulgar American eye." She was what an Englishman would have discribed as "a decayed gentlewoman" Her school was open from 8 a. m. until 4 p. m., Saturdays included; forty children attended; she had no assistant and no piano; some of the pupils were children of nine or ten years, cases of arrested development" and chronic disease.—It would be useless to describe the life during school hours—a little weaving and sewing, a few songs, a great many squabbles; discipline was enforced by the primitive process of slapping the offenders, or in extreme cases, dragging the criminal by his feet—should he refuse to walk—and locking him up in the cloak-room. To prevent a battering down of the door, it was necessary for the baroness to share his imprisonment, during which time pandemonium reigned among the thirty-nine.

It is not customary for any family to enter a child in a kindergarten, if a nursery-maid is kept at home; so the kindergarten is not a place where, unconsciously to itself, the child forms ideas of beauty, habits of thought, and a process of reasoning, but merely a room, warmed and lighted, where a responsible woman receives children for the day and relieves the over-taxed mothers. The elementary principles of religion, of government, of citizenship, of social courtesy, of art, music and architecture, enter largely into the life of a well-conducted American kindergarten. The children do not know how much knowledge they absorb there, nor do they need to know. But the parents should know.

I am glad to report to the generous patronesses and able teachers of the home kindergarten that German kindergarten teachers say openly that they desire to improve their work, and are imitating our beautiful kindergarten methods.

After informing myself more definitely in regard to the public school work, I will be glad to send you a few lines on the subject. M. M. A.

Boilermakers and Machinists Strike

The boilermakers and machinists at the Wabash Railroad shops at Springfield, Ill., struck yesterday. The men demand an increase in wages. They are getting 28 to 30 cents an hour, and want 35 cents an hour. Between three and four hundred men are out there.

Forty-eight machinists and 20 boilermakers of the Wabash Railroad at Decatur, Ill., went on strike yesterday for an increase in wages. It is understood that the strike will affect the whole system.

One hundred and thirty-two machinists and boilermakers, in addition to helpers, at the shops at the Wabash Railroad at Fort Wayne, Ind., yesterday struck on refusal of the company to pay 32 cents per hour.

Virginia and South Carolina.

Alexandria is the dearest spot in Virginia to me,
And I want to live there some day is my plea.
The happiest days of my life I spent there,
And since I left there my happiness has been very rare.
Alexandria I will always remember with pleasure
And you bet I shall defend her.
I don't write this because I dislike old S. C.,
But because Virginia is the place for me.
There the girls are very sweet,
But with the girls in old S. C. they can't compete.
Our girls are hard to beat
And all the others will have to retreat.
South Carolina is all to the good—except the dispensary,
And if Ansel has his way, at any rate,
The liquor grafters will abate some day.
Give me old Virginia is all I ask,
As I cannot forget the past.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 18, 1906.

THE army contract for blankets for this year has been awarded to the American Woolen Company, although that corporation was not the lowest bidder, but that is a mere trifle under this extravagant republican administration. The contract was for 40,000 blankets, involving about $200,000, and the lowest bid was $5,000 under the bid of the American Woolen Company. But what is of consequence to the American taxpayer is the fact that the American Woolen Company is known as the woolen trust, and is protected by the tariff in plundering the government and the people who buy its products by virtue of the tariff tax on blankets ranging from 72 per cent. to 159 per cent. The evidence of this extreme protection of a trust by a republican tariff law will be found in the official list of imported merchandise entered for consumption in the United States, 1905, page 74, and published by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Army blankets weigh between 5½ and 6 pounds, and as the blanket covered by the contract above mentioned cost about $4 each, it follows that each pound of wool contained in one of these blankets cost about 70 cents, including the cost of manufacturing and profit. As the woolen trust is protected from foreign competition and can therefore charge enormous profits, the cost to the woolen trust of these blankets sold to the government was probably not more than 50 cents a pound. Turning again to the official list of imports above given, it will be found noted that imported blankets costing not less than 40 cents and not more than 70 cents a pound in the country where produced are taxed by the tariff law 125.144 per cent of their value, and that there were imported 7,111 blankets of the value of $4,147, on which the duty paid was $5,202.56, or 58 cents a pound. There were also imported 1,679 blankets of the value of $507, on which the duty was $807.74, or 30 cents a pound, being at the rate of 159.32 per cent. The object lesson of these figures is that the government had to pay the woolen trust probably double the price that these blankets contracted for would have cost, if such an unreasonable tariff tax had not protected the trust in so doing. Of course every one else who buys blankets is plundered in like manner by this enormous protective duty. And yet the republican leaders, ignoring the very general demand for tariff revision, refused to consider any bid for tariff reform, even the bill introduced by Mr. Williams, the democratic leader in the House of Representatives, to reduce to 100 per cent all schedules that exceeded that rate. And these same leaders have agreed to again stand pat, and if they succeed in electing another republican majority, will refused to allow the Sixtieth Congress to even cut off such tariff excrescences as rates exceeding 100 per cent. Is not such extreme protectionism robbery, in view of the fact that it protects the trusts?

THERE HAS been much talk in Washington during the past month or so about "Greater Washington;" starting manufactories; wholesale stores, etc., but up to the present time not one definite step in this direction has been taken and the probability is that the talk will end in talk. One of the objects of the talkers seems to be to divert to Washington the trade that Alexandria has built up, but in this the talkers will be unsuccessful. Some time ago there was talk of starting a shoe factory in Washington, but before going too far in the matter it was decided, with commendable caution, to send out circulars asking the city retail dealers what they would do toward supporting such an enterprise, and it is said that on the nature of the replies to this circular depends the building of such a factory. If those interested believe that local dealers will support a shoe factory they will find themselves woefully mistaken, for, as a rule, shoe factories, like prophets, are without honor in their own country.

A SPECULATIVE Kentuckian has secured from the Sultan of Turkey the sole right of shipping the water of the River Jordan to all parts of the world for baptismal purposes. As a guaranty of the identity of the water, the casks in which the fluid is shipped are to bear the seal of the Turkish government, and the business of export is to be under the supervision of the Patriarch of Jerusalem. This idea of bringing the Jordan to the convert instead of taking the convert to the Jordan for baptism, suggests the Philadelphia Record, is a pious novelty not without a suspicion of commercialism attached. The conception of such a monopaly was worthy of Mulberry Sellers.

AMERICAN cities which have been studying the municipal ownership propositions, which it has been claimed have reached their highest stage of perfection in Glasgow, will be interested if not surprised at the latest reports upon the telephone situation. The concesus of opinions there appears to show that public ownership of telephone lines is a complete failure. As with Glasgow so with other cities and as with telephones so also with other utilities. The new fangled public ownership idea is a humbug from start to finish and should be severely let alone.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Sept. 18

The Navy Department has received a dispatch reporting the arrival at Cienfuegos of the cruiser Dixie from Havana with marines aboard. The commanding officer of the Dixie states that there have been no further disturbances in the vicinity of Cienfuegos. The arrival of the Dixie, with its reinforcement of 300 marines to add to the slender force of the Marietta, which was already at Cienfuegos, is a relief to the authorities here. Rumors had been afloat about the threatening attitude of the insurgents in that neighborhood towards the rich sugar plantations there which are mainly owned by Americans and there was considerable uneasiness not only as to the safety of those estates but as to the situation of the men of the Marietta who, it was reported, made an armed landing on the 14th inst. to afford protection to property.

The reception of his message also disposes of another unfounded rumor. Yesterday it was reported to the Navy Department from Western Union sources that the only remaining cable line to Cienfuegos—that to Bermuda—had been cut by the insurgents, thus leaving the city and the Marietta isolated from the world. This seems to have been a mistake, as Commander Dunn's message came over the cable showing that it is still working. The fact seems to be that the land lines between Cienfuegos and Havana have been put out of business, but the city is in communication with the outside world by means of the British cable. The Des Moines has arrived at Tampa ready to take on board Secretary Taft, Assistant Secretary Bacon and their party. It is expected that they will go on board tonight, and an immediate start will be made so that the Peace Commissioners will be landed in Havana tomorrow. The only dispatch received this morning from Charge d'Affairs Sleeper, at Havana, was to confirm the announcement that both the government and insurgent forces had agreed to suspend operations pending the peace nogotiations.

Regulations governing the transportation of meat after October 1 in interstate and foreign commerce were made public today. Forms of certificates to be presented to the railroads by persons shipping meat inspected under government regulations, by retail butchers and dealers and by farmers are set forth. "I am a farmer," is the conspicuous feature of the certificate to which the farmer must sign his name when shipping from one State to another. He must give his word that the meat is fit for human food. Duplicates of certificates must be forwarded to Washington and the originals kept for inspection by government officials. Provision is also made for the shipment of meat inspected and passed from one establishment to another where inspection is made, without the words "Inspected and Passed" upon the shipment, provided it is sealed in a car by a employee of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department.

The Mexican insurrectionary movement in Arizona and St. Louis, which for a time threatened international complications, has been wiped out. The Department of Justice received a dispatch this morning from the district attorney at St Louis announcing the flight of the members of the junta, which has been publishing an incendiary newspaper called "Regeneresion."

The military conditions in the Department of the East, which extends along the North Alantic coast from Maine to South Carolina, are fully described in the annual report of Major General Frederick D. Grant, in command. All in all General Grant is generally pleased with the progress made during the past year in his department towards putting his men and defenses in a state of absolute efficiency, although he makes an urgent recommendation that Congress again be requested to make an adequate increase in the personnel of the coast artillery.

Alexandria County Schools.

The Arlington District School Board met at Rosslyn yesterday evening and the proposition to employ a drawing teacher for the school district in conjunction with the other districts of the county was agreed to. This insures a professional drawing teacher, and Superintendent Clements says that Alexandria county will now have a fair chance of winning the prize at the Jamestown Exposition next June for the finest school exhibits of any county in the State.

At 7:30 o'clock last evening there was a large meeting of the voters of Alexandria county at the Ballston school building. The question was, Should the extra levy of ten cents on the $100 valuation of property for building a new school house at or near Fort Myer Heights be ratified at the election to be held today? Mr. J. E. Clements was elected chairman with Edward C. Hall as secretary. Strong speeches were made in favor of the extra school levy by Messrs. Augustus Davids, jr., Dr. Wellburn, A. P. Douglass, and James E. Clements, and a resolution in favor of the levy was unanimously adopted. The election is progressing well today, and it is conceded that the school levy will be carried by a large majority.

Night Watchman Murdered.

A murder, cold-blooded and without apparent motive, was committed at Port Norfolk between midnight and dawn Sunday morning. The victim was J. W. Hall, aged 68, night watchman for the Aciline Manufacturing Company, of Port Norfolk. His body was found by the day watchman, John Young. A heavy iron rod covered with dried blood and matted gray hair of the victim was found near the body. The dead man's watch and pistol were stolen. Suspicion is strongly directed to a man whose name nobody appears to know, who was seen hanging around the vicinity of the scene of the crime. He was seen to take a south-bound Coast Line train at Port Norfolk Junction Sunday morning, having purchased a ticket to Rocky Mount It is believed that this man, wandering upon the premises drunk, was ordered out by the watchman, and that this led to the crime.

The postoffice at Emory, Fauquier county, will be discontinued October 12. Mail will be sent to Pineville.

News of the Day.

The report that E. H. Harriman and financiers allied with him had acquired control of the Baltimore and Ohio and consequently a large interest in Reading, received substantial confirmation in New York yesterday.

For the second time within six months burglars last night successfully looted the postoffice at Avondale, Pa. The safe was blown apart with nitro glycerine. The thieves got away with about $300 in money and stamps.

Twenty trunks belonging to Arthur Phipps, one of the Pittsburg group of steel millionaires, were burned at Los Angeles yesterday. It is believed that prior to the fire the trunks were rifled of their contents, valued at $75,000.

By the collapse of the superstructure of a coal pocket being constructed for a worsted mill at Lawrence, Mass., today, the foreman and another man were killed. Eight others were injured, two of them so badly that they will die.

Owing to a fierce storm Sunday night Wrightsville Beach, N. C., was cut off from the mainland for hours, and 200 cottagers were in great danger, as the breakers swept all the way across the beach doing $8,000 worth of damage.

At the democratic primaries in Baltimore yesterday, Mr. William A. Wheatley was nominated for associate judge of the Supreme Beach, Harry B. Wolf for Congress in the Third district and John Gill for Congress in the Fourth district.

With the adjournment today of the old Finnish diet, another epoch in the history of that country comes to a close. In the Czar's letter dissolving the diet, Nicholas offers further promises of reforms and expresses hope for the improvement of conditions throughout the country.

Christopher C. Schneider, who was subsequently discovered to be blind, was arrested in New York last night for making a murderous assault with a knife on Thomas Hughes, a night watchman, and a policeman who came to Hughes's rescue. Hughes had accidentally collided with Schneider in the darkness. This precipitated the assault.

After six weeks of severe illness Mr. Warren G. Elliott, president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, died yesterday morning at 3:15 o'clock, at Glen Springs Hotel, Watkins Glen, N. Y. The primary cause was kidney trouble, although Mr. Elliott had been in failing health for a year. The deceased was 58 years old on March 22 last, and was one of the best-known railroad officials and corporation lawyers in the East and South. He was born in Elizabeth City, N. C., on March 22, 1848.

Two Passengers Robbed on Liner.

When the American line steamship New York reached New York Sunday from Southampton it was learned that two of her passengers who are on the ship's list as J. S. B. Thompson, of Atlanta, Ga., and J. Carroll Payne, of the same city, had been robbed. From Mr. Thompson was stolen a gold split-second repeating watch, valued at $1,000, and Mr. Payne lost $350 in bills. Mr. Thompson's watch bears the initials "J. S. B.," and a record of its presentation to the owner by some railway men in 1884. The men are old friends and had been on a business trip in Europe together. On the voyage home they occupied the same stateroom, Thursday they had occasion to leave their cabin for a short time and when they returned discovered their loss. They reported the matter to Purser Urquhart immediately and search was made for the missing property, but no trace of it was found. When the steamer arrived detectives consulted with the men who had been robbed and with the steamer's officers, but no arrests were made.

There was a Mrs. J. S. B. Thompson on the passenger list, but the purser explained that this was a mistake; there was no Mrs. Thompson on the ship.

Mr. Thompson advertised in this morning's papers that he would pay a reward of $200 for the return of his watch.—[New York World.

Death on a Train.

President Charles D. McIver, of the North Carolina Normal and Industrial College, at Greensboro, N. C., one of the greatest educators of the South, dropped dead of apoplexy on the Bryan special from Raleigh to Greensboro just after the train left Durham yesterday.

When the Bryan special stopped in Durham it was raining, so the speaking took place in the Opera House, which was crowded to the utmost limit. Soon after the train left Durham Dr. McIver died. In consequence of this event Mr. Bryan, who regarded Dr. McIver as his personal friend, declined to speak at Hillsboro, and at Burlington he made a brief announcement of the tragic occurrence and paid a tender tribute to the memory of his departed friend.

Dr. McIver was born in North Carolina, September 29, 1860.

Mr Bryan arrived at Raleigh yesterday to made 11 speeches in North Carolina, winding up with an address at Charlotte tonight.

Accidentally Killed.

Miss Azzie Shepherd Otty, daughter of Mrs. Henry Otty, of Martinsburg, W. Va., was shot and killed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Fiery, in Martinsburg Sunday night by Benjamin Fiery, the 12-year-old son of Mr. Fiery, while the lad was handling a .22-caliber rifle. Miss Otty, who was employed in the government service at Washington, came to Martinsburg Sunday to visit her mother, who is housekeeper for Mrs. Fiery, In company with her sister, she was seated in her mother's room at the Fiery home. The lad was in an adjoining room and attempted to pick up the rifle from a bed. The weapon was accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through an open doorway and striking the young lady in the left temple. Death was instantaneous. The little fellow was crazed with grief and wanted to kill himself. Miss Otty was 27 years old.

I coughed constantly and nothing relieved my terrible suffering until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. Virginia News.

F. S. Mays died in Petersburg yesterday aged 104 years. Up to a short time before his death Mr. Mays was frequently seen on the street.

The term of enlistment of 15 or more of the members of the Petersburg Grays has expired and all of them have expressed their determination not to re-enlist. This will badly cripple the company.

George Matthews, the Washington artist, has been engaged to paint an immense picture of "Lee and His Generals" for the Jamestown Ter-Centennial. The canvas will be twenty-four feet by nine feet.

Governor Swanson and party left Richmond this afternoon for the Jamestown Exposition site, where tomorrow the Governor will make the principal address at the laying of the cornerstone of the Virginia buildings for the exposition.

The Lynchburg jail saw its first delivery in thirty years Sunday night, when three negro criminals, who were among the worst confined in the jail, made good their escape by sawing through the bars and nothing has since been heard of them.

Israel Monggold, 69 years old, was indicted yesterday by the grand jury in the Circuit Court of Rockingham for the murder of his 18-year-old son. Monggold is one of the wealthiest landowners in northern Rockingham and says he is the father of 50 children.

The breach in the Richmond Light Infantry Blues battalion is rapidly widening. The members of the two companies are preparing a petition to be presented to Governor Swanson, asking him not to accept the resignations of the two captains and four lieutenants which have been forwarded to Major Cheatwood.

Placing his liabilities at $75,597.54 and assets at not as much as one cent, Allen Caperton, who gives his occupation as that of a clerk and his house as Suffolk, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the United States Court at Norfolk. But the property to the value of perhaps $50,000, now held by a trustee, will be applied toward the payment of the debts of the petitioner.

The funeral of Mrs. Marion Wallace Owens Vail, a Confederate heroine and a daughter of Dr. Escrom Owens, of Culpeper county, will be held Wednesday morning. She died in St. Louis Sunday, aged seventy-six. She was an ardent southern sympathizer, and, after seeing an army of Confederate prisoners, many of them wounded and dying, marched into St. Louis from Fort Donaldson, she volunteered to nurse in several federal prisons. In June, 1863, Gen. Leighton banished her from St. Louis for liberating Confederate prisoners.

The most thrilling of all the experiences of the storm of Sunday night was that of the sailing yacht Palatine, owned by C. H. Leadlie, a wealthy civil engineer of St. Louis. She was towed to Norfolk yesterday rudderless, with the copper plates on her bow riven by the seas, her main boom broken and most of her rigging gone, by the British steamship Lovaine. The Palestine was on her way from New York to Baltimore, with her owner, his wife and son and five in the crew. But for the timely arrival of the vessel which towed the yacht to Norfolk she would have ended her voyage on the shoals off False Cape, near Hatteras, upon which she was drifting when picked up.

REFUSE PEACE PROPOSITIONS.

At a meeting of rebel leaders, held in the town hall of Bejucal yesterday, it was decided, after a number of violent speeches had been delivered, not to accept the peace propositions of the Cuban government. While there is a general desire among the insurgents, as well as on the part of the government officials, to arrange peace as quickly as possible, the hope that anything like permanent arrangements can be secured by Wednesday, when Secretaries Taft and Bacon are expected in Havana, has been abandoned.

The insurgent leaders, Campos, Marquetti and Carillo, have withdrawn their forces from Guanajay and have agreed to the suspension of hostilities pending peace negotiations. Other insurgent leaders also are agreeing to a suspension of hostilities.

Word has reached Havana of the first fighting in Santiago province. Four hundred rebels under Colonel Dubois met the rural guardsmen at La Maya. The result of the engagement is not known.

Nelson Sues Sullivan.

Theodore Nelson, manager of the Hearst Independence League, yesterday began his threatened suit in Chicago against Roger C. Sullivan, democratic national committee man, on the charge of libel.

Mr. Sullivan was made defendant to a suit for $50,000 damages brought by Nelson in the Circuit Court. This is an aftermath of the Bryan-Sullivan controversy and grows out of the reply made by Mr. Sullivan to Mr. Bryan's speech attacking him at the Jefferson Club banquet in Chicago on the night of September 4.

Mr. Sullivan's statement in answer to the Nebraskan was given out in New York on September 7, and contained the following charge against Nelson, who was formerly secretary of the democratic State executive committee, in describing the men who are associated with Mr. Bryan in Illinois politics.

"Theodore Nelson, an unconvinced felon, by the grace of the statute of limitations was permitted to preside at Mr. Bryan's banquet Tuesday evening, instead of wearing stripes in the penitentiary for stealing public funds."

Only a praecipe in the action against Mr. Sullivan was filed yesterday. Attorneys Oliver & McCartney, representing Mr. Nelson, said that a declaration is being prepared to be filed some time this week.

COURT OF APPEALS.

In the Court of Appeals at Staunton yesterday, the case of Luther N. Breedon et al. vs. John B. Peale, from the Circuit Court of Rockingham, was argued and submitted.

The case of Roller vs. Paul, from Rockingham county, was argued in part.

Next case; Kline vs. Muener's administrator; Clem vs. Givens, administrator.

Stricken with blood poisoning as a result of scratching a mosquito bite on his arm, John Bowers, a veteran of the civil war, died in agony last night, at a boarding house in Atlantic City, N. J. The arm was swollen to enormous size.

Today's Telegraphic News

Typhoon in Hong Kong.

Manila, Sept. 18—Without the slightest warning of disaster, Hong Kong was visited today by a terrible typhoon, which swept across the island where the city is located, and wrought great damage in the harbor. This is the news contained in cable dispatches received here from the Chinese city.

Enormous property loss has been caused and hundreds of lives destroyed.

It is reported that the coast for miles is lined with the wrecks of small sailing craft caught in the terrible storm and driven ashore.

In Hong Kong harbor many vessels foundered and others were driven ashore. The loss of life was heaviest among the crews on vessels in the port. It is reported that in numerous cases not a man escaped from the ships.

Serious fights were made by several of the crews to save their ships, but they could do little against the force of the storm. Standing bravely by the vessels they were driven ashore and hundreds of sailors lost their lives in the breakers after their ships struck.

The German steamer Johanne and the British steamer San Ohung went down with all hands, it is reported. The steamer Fustian, of the Hong Kong and Maco Railroad, foundered, only her purser and mate escaping, so far as is known. In the city the typhoon wrought great damage. Whole rows of houses are reported blown down, and it is feared there has been heavy loss of life. Details, however, are lacking.

Business is at a standstill, and the native citizens are almost in a panic.

It is reported there has been considerable loss of property among members of the foreign colonies.

A number of the foreign residents are also reported injured, but, so far as is known, there has been no fatalities among them.

Bodies are now being washed up along the shores of the harbor and for miles the coast is strewn with the wreckage of all manner of craft.

Six steamers are reported to have foundered in the harbor

London, Sept. 18.—Between 300 and 400 lives were lost in the typhoon at Hong Kong, today, according to advices received here late this evening.

Affairs in Cuba.

Havana, Sept. 18.—Efforts of the "peace makers" who are busy today trying to arrange a compromise between the government and the insurgents at the gates of the city before the arrival of Secretaries Taft and Bacon, are now being directed toward trying to induce all members of Congress to proffer their resignations. Palma's resignation is regraded as sure to be forthcoming at the proper moment. If the Senators and Representatives will resign it will leave the way open for holding new elections, the main demand of the insurgents.

So far the peace commissioners have not met with great success in their endeavors to effect a settlement. After giving the commissioners to understand they would give liberal terms to the insurgents in order to reach an immediate agreement the government authorites when confronted with representatives of the rebels backed down and insisted on standing by their original propositions.

With the advantages they possess in the field, the insurgents declined to be robbed of what they considered the fruits of their victory, and would not come to the government's terms.

New elections and Palma's retirement have now been set by them as the minimum which they will agree to.

Despite the proclamation of a cessation of fighting by President Palma, it is reported that hostilities are proceeding actively at Cienfuegos. Little is known of what is going on there, but the rebels are reported to be engaged in an attack on the city, the operations taking the form of a siege.

Birmingham, Eng., Sept. 18.—America has informed England how far she intends to proceed regarding the disturbances in Cuba. The State Department declares, according to an article published in the Post today that America, owing to her territorial position, regards herself as trustee of the interests of all other nations having commercial relations with Cuba.

Philadelphia, Sept. 18.—The Minneapolis one of the fleetest ships of the navy and a member of the flying squadron during the Spanish American war, left the League Island navy yard bound for Havana, Cuba, with a detachment of 365 marines aboard. These marines are designed solely for duty ashore.

New York Primaries.

New York, Sept. 18.—With horns locked in the most desperate fight waged in old Manhattan in many years, the members of two political parties are fighting out within their own ranks today, the all absorbing question of bossism. The occasion is the State primary elections of both the republican and democratic parties.

The polls opened at 2 p. m., and close at 9 p. m. Both factions of both parties expect trouble, and larges forces of extra officers have been sworn in and every precaution is being taken to prevent rioting, which seems inevitable, at some of the strategic points in the city.

On the republic side the issue is the continuation of the leadership of Herbert E. Parsons, as head of the county committee or a relapse into bossism of Odell and his ally, Lemuel Eli Quigg.

On the democratic side the outcome will determine the continuance of Chas. F. Murphy as leader of Tammany Hall, or whether there will be a reorganization of that body along lines suggested by Mayor McClellan. It will determine more than that. It means the casting of 105 votes of Manhattan and the Bronx, for William R. Heart, for Governor in the next convention at Buffalo.

Late this afternoon, the indications are strong for a Murphy victory in the democratic contest. There are no straws, however, to indicate the direction of the republican breeze.

It has been conceded by both sides that the attitude of the Sullivan faction of Tammany Hall, would determine today's issue.

Burglars last night entered the grocery store of C. H. Wickard, in Cumberland, Md., and secured about $300. The gang attempted to brake into a number of other business establishment but were unsuccessful.

A Narrow Escape.

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten. In the mad, pell mell rush of our little life things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. A hastily eaten meal and its resultant headache may cause us social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodal For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Wholesale Sentence.

Warsaw, Sept. 18.—Arraigned for trial before a military court two hundred persons arrested while the outbreak at Siedlce was in progress, were today condemned to death for alleged acts of violence committed during the massacre.

Those who have been sentenced are for the most part Jews, relatives of the unfortunates who were killed or wounded during the massacre. The passing of the death sentence on the prisoners has aroused a storm of protest. It is believed the authorities at St. Petersburg will order the commutation of the sentences. A movement to see if the victims of the court martial cannot be saved from their fate has already been started in England.

Vienna, Sept. 18.—Preparations to blow up every one who attends the funeral of General Trepoff, former commandant of the imperial palace at St. Petersburg, tomorrow, has been completed by terrorists, but the plans of the anarchists have been foiled by the discovery of their plot. This is the report telegraphed by the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Zietung. The funeral will be held in the court chapel. Terrorists planned to blow up the chapel while the funeral was in progress. Two arrests have been made in connection with the alleged plot.

Foreman Killed.

New York, Sept. 18.—With pistol bullets humming like bumble bees about their ears, two hundred passengers on an Ocean avenue trolley car returning from the Gravesend races and another bound for Sheepshead Bay from Manhattan were thrown into panic last evening. The shots were fired by two men who had killed a third on Marcy avenue, Brooklyn. Both cars were open. As they arrived at the spot passengers mostly woman, saw two men with revolvers shooting at a third. At the first shot the man fell. As he was falling another shot entered his head. The men who had shot him ran down Marcy avenue pursued by fifty men. The two men turned and began firing at the crowd of pursuers. Their shots were high and the bullets went singing through the trolley cars, which had stopped. Passengers screamed and dived to get beneath the seats. Some tried to crawl beneath the cars. Handsomely dressed women sat down on the floor cowering behind seats. Every one appeared to be trying to get behind every body else until the two men who had been doing the shooting turned into an alley and disappeared. The man who was killed was Michael Ross, 34 years old, foreman of a gang of street pavers. His murderers are thought to have been discharged employees.

Harriman and the B. & O. R. R.

New York, Sept. 18.—Apropos of the morning report that E. H. Harriman and the Union Pacific interests had quietly bought up the control of the Baltimore and Ohio and would hasten to complete an ocean to ocean line, using the Chicago and Alton to connect the eastern Union Pacific terminals with the western extremes of the Baltimore and Ohio lines, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. today gave out a statement to the effect that the announcement was premature. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., who hold some $40,000,000 of Baltimore and Ohio stock which Harriman needs to secure the control, today admitted that the sale is being negotiated upon, but deny that it has yet been effected. The general belief in the street is that Harriman, if he has not already done so, will secure the stock he desires without further trouble.

New Hampshire Republicans.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 18.—When the most exciting political convention the Granite State has ever seen was called to order by U. S. Senator Gallinger, today, the four candidates for the republican nomination for Governor were all in the field, each claiming enough pledged delegates to make the nomination of any one on the first ballot an impossibility. Balloting will begin this afternoon, but no choice is expected until several ballots have been taken. The candidates are Winston Churchill, Charles M. Floyd, Rosecrans W, Pillsbury and Charles H. Greenleaf.

Passenger Train Plunges Into River.

Lawton, Oklahoma, Sept. 18.—The local Rock Island office is in receipt of the vague news of the plunging of a passenger train into the Cimarron river. Report says the engine is out of sight in the water and that the engineer and fireman are killed. Many others are probably lost.

Parts of the bridge weakened by the heavy rains last night, engineers were warned of it. The bridge gave way and the locomotive plunged into the water.

Anti-Christian Rioting.

Tangier, Sept. 18.—Anti Christian rioting which has assumed serious proportions is progress at Casaablanca, according to dispatches received here. The homes of several Christians have been sacked and Europeans are taking refuge in the various consulates. A number of Europeans have been injured in the rioting, which is being directed by a native priest.

Killed by Live Wire.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—When about to fall from the top of a refrigerator car today, Daniel M. Holes, employed at the Pennsylvania warehouse, grasped a wire that passed over the car. It was an electric light wire and when Holes grasped it 3,400 volts passed through his body. He died in the Harrisburg Hospital soon after.

Hearst Opens His Campaign.

New York, Sept. 18.—W. R. Hearst last night opened his campaign for governor with a ratification meeting at Cooper Union. His greeting by the audience, which packed the hall, and the hundreds who waited outside to catch a glimpse of him recalled the ovations of his campaign for Mayor.

Another Mutiny.

Port Said, Egypt, Sept. 18.—Another mutiny occurred to lay on the Turkish troop ship Asaar, following the outbreak yesterday. The mutineers were quickly quelled, but not until many of them had been wounded. Over 100 men were injured in the outbreaks yesterday and today.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 18.—After a strong opening and sharp advances in many stocks, the general market became heavy and a large majority of the issues traded in not only lost all their early gains, but many of them showed material net losses at the end of the first hour. In nearly all the active issues, the early buying was by the room traders.

Theodore P. Shonts, Chief of the Panama Canal Commission, was thrown from a cab in New York, today, by the horse slipping and narrowly escaped injury.

Murder in West Virginia.

At Barbourville, eight miles south of Huntington, W. Va., about eight o'clock yesterday, R. H. Baker, seventy years old, was discovered lying on the floor of his store, near the Chesapeake and Ohio passenger station, with his skull crushed and his body fearfully mutilated. Nearby was found a pick, such as is commonly used by railway laborers, the bloody instrument telling how the deed was committed. Baker had evidently been dead for eight or ten hours when discovered. The cash drawer had been rifled, and there were evidences that many articles of value had been carried away. The officers are hard at work on the case, and it was given out last night that a clew had been obtained that would lead to arrests early today. Hundreds of people are crowding the streets of the little town, and public indignation is at such a heat that should the murderer be discovered it would be hard to save him from mob violence. Baker's store had been robbed twice previous to this time, since January 1, and he had been sleeping there for several months. At midnight it was stated that two boys aged fifteen, sons of prominent families, would be arrested, charged with the murder, as soon as they could be located.

The New Electric Light Plant.

Mr. E. E. Mandeville, of the Alexandria Electric Company, was in the city yesterday, and while here made a further inspection of the property of the Osage Manufacturing Company, bounded by Wolfe, Wilkes and Union streets and the Potomac river. The company has purchased this square of ground with the buildings on the same, subject to confirmation by the court. In consequence of the delay incident to receiving the titles, it will be impossible to have the new electric plant in operation by Thanksgiving Day, as had been previously announced, but it is believed that by Christmas it will have been constructed in full blast. The property purchased by the company is eligibly situated, having a fine river front, and railroad tracks run through the grounds. Many years ago Smith & Perkins manufactured locomotives in the buildings situated on this square of ground. The premises remained idle for about a quarter of a century when an attempt was made to utilize them by what was known as the Vapor Fuel Company. The Virginia Iron Shipbuilding Co. succeeded that company, and this was in time followed by an organization which purposed to vulcanize wood. Considerable money was spent by the latter company but their experiments failed to produce as satisfactory results as had been anticipated. Later the interior of the buildings was changed in order that barytes could be ground there. The last enterprise was also short-lived, and the property of late had been on the market.

Avoided Lynching

To prevent a possible lynching, George Griffin, a burly negro, was yesterday removed from the county jail at Culpeper to Alexandria, where he will be confined until taken back for trial on the charge of attempting to criminally assault Miss Gerald Covington, a young white girl who lives about five miles from Culpeper. The fact that Miss Covington had been attacked was not made known until yesterday, although it occurred last week. The negro rushed upon her from a thicket while she was crossing a lonely field some distance from her home, and knocked her down. A terrific struggle ensued, in which the young woman was severely hurt and had her clothing torn. She managed to escape from the black man, however, and he fled to the woods, where he was later captured. Miss Covington has identified Griffin as her assailant. She is a member of one of the prominent families of the Culpeper neighborhood. There is much indignation against the negro, and, accordingly, he was hurried away as soon as the story was known. Deputy Sheriff John Bowerett brought the negro to this city.

Luna Park.

Last night Madame Zingarella repeated her thrilling performance on the high spiral tower at Luna Park. A ride down the incline of the "Shoot-the-Chute" at lightning speed, seated on a unicycle, with no handle bars to support him, was the thrilling act of Master Harry Rector. Although the wheel swayed from side to side as the start was made down the 260 feet of incline, the young rider finally got the machine under perfect control. Where the incline meets the water's edge, Rector gave a leap into the air, alighting in the deep lagoon. Several boatmen in waiting grasped the machine and got it to shore, while the young rider swam to the other side. The act will be repeated every afternoon and evening during the week. The Greater Washington Band under the direction of John Bovello, gave a concert last evening that was the best of the Monday evening programme. The park was well filled last night, in spite of the cool weather, and the gates did not close until the usual hour. It is announced that the park will remain open during October.

Wharf Privileges Denied.

Robert S. Hume, president of the Independent Steamboat and Barge Company, informed the Commissioners of the District of Columbia yesterday that he has notified the owners of the steamer Bartholdi not to land without the consent of the Commissioners at the wharf leased by the Independent Steamboat and Barge Company in Washington. This action on the part of Mr. Hume was in compliance with an order issued by the Commissioners a week ago. They were informed that the steamer Bartholdi was carrying persons from Washington to the unnamed ark, anchored in the Potomac below Alexandria, for gambling purposes, and, in an effort to break up the practice, they took the means of denying the steamer wharf privilege. The wharf in question is owned by the District and has been leased to the Independent Steamboat and Barge Company.

Filed Schedule and Rates.

The case of the Commonwealth against the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company, the railroad failing to file its schedule of rates and tariffs with the State Corporation Commission, as required by law, was heard before the commission in Richmond yesterday. It is provided that roads so failing shall be fined $500, and that the company was called upon to show cause why it should not be dealt with as the statute provides. On being summoned the company hastened to file the schedules in question, together with an answer apologizing for its oversight, and asking that in consideration of the oversight the fine he remitted. The commission will hand down its decision in the matter in the next few days.

Wedding in King George.

"Windsor," the home of the King George Washingtons, was the scene of a quiet and very pretty marriage yesterday morning, when Miss Virginia Washington became the bride of Mr. Horace Ashton Fitzhugh, of New York. At 9 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor. Miss Sue Washington, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was attired in white, and carried white asters. The bride, gowned in white organdy, with orange blossoms and veil, carried white roses. Rev. B. T. Turner performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Henry T. Washington. On account of the recent death of the bride's mother only the immediate members of the two families were present. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh boarded the steamer for Washington, en route to New York, where the bridegroom has been in business for some years. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Washington, and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Fitzhugh, all of King George county.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Jones, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with assaulting Thomas Stanton, also colored, was dismissed.

Daisy Barney and Sarah Cotte, both colored, arrested by Officer Bell charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each. Jennie Johnson, colored, arrested by the same officer charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

A colored man, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

A colored man, arrested by Officer Garvey, at the instance of an electric railway conductor, who charged him with trespassing upon cars of the company, was dismissed with an admonition.

A Long Sentence.

In the Fairfax Court yesterday the grand jury returned nine indictments against William Thomas, colored, charged with horse stealing. Thomas made no defense; pleaded guilty to all the indictments and then threw himself on the mercy of the court. Judge Nicol told the prisoner that he would be as lenient with him as he could be and sentenced him to serve three years in the penitentiary on each charge—making twenty-seven years in all. Thomas is now over forty years old and has already served a jail sentence. Farmers from all over the county were present at the trial.

The Light Committee.

The committee on light met last night and reorganized by the re-election of Mr. L. E. Ubler as chairman. The committee decided to recommend to the City Council a reduction in the price of gas. The price now is $1.80 per thousand feet with a discount of 10 cents per thousand feet off for prompt payment. It is now proposed to let the price remain at $1.80, but to make the discount 20 cents off for prompt payment. This will virtually make the price of gas at $1.10 per thousand feet.

The weather has turned warm again and straw hats are more comfortable than felt ones. The mercury at noon today registered 83°.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 18, 1906.

Denver's First Stagecoach.

On the 17th of May, 1859, Denver turned out to welcome the first through coach of what was destined to grow into the "Overland Mail," an enterprise which for sheer American pluck and daring must be forever linked with the fame of the "Pony Express." Red shirts drifted to the outskirts of the hamlet and dotted the hills around. Hard faced bartenders made ready for the "hottest night that ever tore the camp loose." The artillery of holster and saddle boot was unlimbered for an ecstatic fusillade. There was lively betting in dust and nuggets that the first through stage had been gathered in by Indians, with takers as eager to stake their faith that the scalps of driver and guard would come through intact. At length a swirl of dust showed far down the trail. It grew into a yellow cloud that crept toward the eager hamlet. Then six mules, stretched out on the gallop, emerged from this curtain, and behind them was the lumbering, swaying stage, come safely through on time, and Denver was in touch with the world where men wore white shirts and lived in real houses. The cheers that roared a welcome to this heroic enterprise were echoed in every western town which hoped and longed for a link of its own with the home country, "way back east."—Outing Magazine.

The Polite Burman.

In the cities of Burma, where the natives have been long in contact with Europeans, says the author of "Burma, Painted and Described," they have lost some of their traditional politeness, but in the country districts old school courtesy is still the custom. An English gentleman who had bought a new pony was trying him out on a Burman road when the animal bolted and ran at top speed down a narrow road. In the way ahead was a native cart, in which was a family party out holiday making. The pony dashed into the back of the cart, threw his rider into the midst of the merrymakers and severely injured the Burman who was driving. Before the Englishman had an opportunity to explain his unexpected onslaught the Burman picked himself up and bowed low. "My lord, my lord," he said apologetically, "the cart should not have been there."

Inherited Memories.

A writer in the Nineteenth Century tells a strange story of "inherited memories." The ruins of an ancient Roman fortress rise from the grounds of a Mr. Phillips. A clergyman called upon the owner one day and asked to see the ruins. "He told me he had a distinct recollection of living there and that he held some office of a priestly nature in the days of the Roman occupation," said Mr. Phillips. "One fact struck me as significant. He insisted on examining a ruined tower which had bodily overturned. 'There used to be a socket in the top of it,' he went on, 'in which we used to plant a mast, and archers used to be hauled to the top in a basket protected with leather, from which they picked off the leaders among the ancient Gorlestonians.' We found the socket he had indicated."

When Paris Was Dirty.

It takes the labors of 4,000 to keep the city of Paris clean today, but in times past that capital did not care so much about the matter and was not always pleasing to look upon. In 1348 King John of France made the request that Parisians should not allow their pigs to roam the streets. Charles VI. (1368-1422) complained that the practice of throwing rubbish into the Seine made it a "great horror and an abomination to look upon." Until the seventeenth century everybody who could went about Paris on horseback in order to avoid contact with the filth of the streets. Various ordinances were made to compel the people to sweep the road before their own doors, but it was not until 1791 that the dust cart became an institution.

A Lullaby.

Magistrate—You are accused of attempting to hold a pedestrian up at 2 o'clock this morning. What have you to say in your own behalf?

Prisoner—I am not guilty, your honor. I can prove a lullaby.

Magistrate—You mean an alibi.

Prisoner—Well, call it what you like, but my wife will swear that I was walking the floor with the baby at the hour mentioned in the charge.—Chicago News.

Ibsen on Friendship.

Friends are a costly luxury, and when one invests one's capital in a mission in life one cannot afford to have friends. The expensiveness of friendship does not lie in what one does for one's friends, but in what one, out of regard for them, leaves undone. This means the crushing of many an intellectual germ.—From a Letter to George Brandes.

Just Like Him.

Arthur—You think I don't love you, darling? Why, I would die for you. Arethusa—Yes, and it would be just like you to do it so that your funeral would come on a day when I had to give up a real nice engagement to attend it. Oh, you men are so selfish!

Sad.

First Baby—You look sad.

Second Baby—I am. I feel keenly the responsibility of having parents who cannot afford to have me.—Smart Set.

OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Two Grateful Letters from Women Who Avoided Serious Operations.—Many Women Suffering from Like Conditions Will Be Interested.

When a physician tells a woman, suffering from female trouble, that an operation is necessary it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. As one woman expressed it, when told by her physician that she must undergo an operation, she felt that her death knell had sounded.

Our hospitals are full of women who are there for just such operations!

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but such cases are much rarer than is generally supposed, because a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after the doctors had said an operation must be performed. In fact, up to the point where the knife must be used to secure instant relief, this medicine is certain to help.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have escaped serious operations.

Margrite Ryan, Treasurer of St. Andrew's Society, Indianapolis, Ind., writes of her cure as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I cannot find words to express my thanks for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me. The doctor said I could not get well unless I had an operation for the trouble from which I suffered. I knew I could not stand the strain of an operation and made up my mind I would be an invalid for life. Hearing how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had saved other women from serious operations I decided to try it, and in less than four months I was entirely cured; and words fail to express my thankfulness."

Miss Margret Merkley, of 275 8d Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps, bearing-down pains, and an irritable disposition compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said that I had a serious female trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation as my only hope. To this I strongly objected—and I decided as a last resort to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"To my surprise the ulceration healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared, and I am once more strong, vigorous and well; and I cannot express my thanks for what it has done for me."

Serious feminine troubles are steadily on the increase among women—and before submitting to an operation every woman should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been curing the worst forms of female complaints, all functional troubles, inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement, weakness, irregularities, indigestion and nervous prostration. Any woman who could read the many grateful letters on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office would be convinced of the efficiency of her advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

FINANCIAL

MAKE IT A RULE

To lay aside a few dollars of your earnings every week and deposit them in our Savings Department, where they will earn interest, and on which you can draw in time of need. Money at home is not safe and when it is not earning interest you are losing money. You can open an account in our Savings Department with ONE DOLLAR and up, on which we pay 3 PER CENT interest and compound same into the principal twice a year. You can readily see under these conditions how quickly a small deposit will amount to a considerable sum. In naming executors for your estate you should consider the many advantages of securing the services of a strong and reliable trust company such as this—we act as Executor, Administrator, Trustee and in all other fiduciary capacities. When in need of a bond you should call on us—remember a man is under obligation to his family to not sign bonds. Corporate surety is what you want when in need of a bond—we execute Fidelity, Contract, Official and Judicial Bonds. We solicit the accounts of Banks, Corporations, Firms and Individuals. Loan money at market rate of interest. Consult with us—our advice may be worth something to you.
